Motorcycle Races at Poquonoc Bridge Race Track.

Next Saturday, Sept. 5th, a motor-cycle race meet will be at the Poquenoc race track under the auspices of the Eastern Race Meet association. There will be five big events, including a feature match race between Bill Burdick of Norwich and Ted Carroll of Springfield, both of whom are well known racing men. As an added attraction an automobile race for the championship of New London county will also be held. Entry blanks may be had from George V. Beebe, president, Niantic, Conn. See adv.

DAVIS THEATRE.

Last Chance to Witness the Marvelous Mind Reading Performance of Madam Emma Dayton Matinee and Evening Today.

One of the most wonderful exhibi-tions of mind reading ever witnessed in this city is given by Madam Dayton, who headlines the bill at this theatre, today. She will answer any question you want to know, lost friends or relayou want to know, lost friends or relatives you have not heard from, also lost articles. The madam is absolutely blindfolded and the questions are hung on a wire across the stage. If there is anything you want to know, come and ask the madam today; write your question at home and bring it to the theatre. She will answer it for you. Remember, today will be the last opportunity to ask her any question. opportunity to ask her any question, so if you have something you'd like to ask, don't be afraid to come and ask her. The remainder of the show includes Lowry and Duel, a clever pair of Irish singers and dancers, who do a novel Irish comedy skit, and William J. Mills, a lightning change artist. Mr. Mills makes all his changes in full Mills makes all his changes in full view of the audience and is one of the fastest change artists in vaudeville. In the photoplays there is a two-reel feature called The Eleventh Hour Reformation, a powerful K. B. dramatic story, Our Mutual Girl, No. 31, the second of the Irving S. Cobb series, and one funny Keystone comedy called A Cat's Tail, one of the funniest Keystones seen here in some time. For the first half of next week another first class bill has been booked of vaudeville and photoplays, includof vaudeville and photoplays, includ-ing the sixth chapter of The Million Dollar Mystery, which gets more interesting each week. There will also be the usual Mutual Movies and Keystone comedies. Matinee today at 2.30, 5 and 10 cents. Two shows tonight, at 7 and 8.45, balcony 10, entire lower floor 15 cents. Come early and be sure

COLONIAL THEATRE.

The Antique Engagement Ring, Two-Reel Vitagraph Exclusive Feature.

This remarkable story of the dangerous spots in the matrimonial channel is a splendid presentation by the Vitagraph cast, headed by James Morrison and Dorothy Kelly and others. George Darrel presents Helen Gray with a beautiful antique engagement ring, but later the pair have a quarrel over Dave Brower, a friend of the engaged girl. Darrel goes west and the girl accepts the attentions of Brower and marries him. Darrel in the west and marries him. Darrel in the wes s and this want reaches the ears of Helen, now the wife of Brower, who is a dissipated spendthrift. She sends the money received from pawning the antique ring to Darrel in an anonymous antique ring to Darrel in an anonymous letter. Later, when the ring is about to be sold at auction, they meet and Darrel is informed of the identity of his benefactor. Brower in a fit of anger strikes his wife and presumes he has killed her. He commits suicide and Helen is free to marry her first love. Other films today are Broncho Billy's Leap, A Daring Getaway, Biograph, and Stung, and The Plot That Failed, two comedies.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Harry Vokes on the Bill Monday. A special feature has been secured by the management of this house for next Monday, Tuesday and Wednes-day in the person of Harry Vokes of Vokes & Walsh, but formerly of Ward Vokes & Walsh, but formerly of Ward & Vokes, the famous tramp comedians, "Percy and Harold." Mr. Vokes has consented to play an engagement here through the efforts of a mutual friend in Boston, and his many admirers here in the city will have a chance to see him in vaudeville in the same character he played in the famous old Ward & Vokes musical comedies. Other acts on Monday's programme will be Shaw & Swan, a man and woman of unusual ability in entertaining an audience with elever jokes and ing an audience with clever jokes and witty songs, and Musical Jewell will be heard in a novelty musical act that is a corker. The Trey o' Hearts will be shown Monday and Tuesday in the hird episode and promises to be a

Today the Parsons Sisters in a neat singing and costume change novelty, Melville Lloyd, a comedy trickster, and Ward & Delmore in The Baggageman, t comedy skit, compose the vaudeville bill, and the Animated Weekly, The Feud, a two-reel drama, and The Mind's Awakening, a frontier story, complete the picture bill.

Goodyear Tires at Ante-Bellum Prices

The Goodyear Tires at Ante-Bellum Prices
The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co.
unnounce "No war prices on Goodyear ires." Mr. F. A. Sieberling, president of the company, thus explains their inique position:

"We advanced Goodyear prices, as thers did theirs, when the rubber oanic came. Almost in a day crude rubber rose in New York from 55 cents per pound to much over a dollar, and us most of the world's rubber comes

s most of the world's rubber comes ria London or Antwerp we saw no way out for a time.

"The New York supply was too imall to consider. European exchange was entirely suspended. Merchant ihips had ceased running.

"But we have an almost world-wide riganization, and we brought it at ince into play. We are the world's argest buyers of high grade rubber, so we have our own experts in London, Colombo, Singapore and Para.

"We cabled our London people to make the property of the rubber there, and paying cash hey obtained 1,500,000 pounds of the inest rubber there. They bought become the advance—before the other suyers saw a way to get London exchange or to bring the rubber here.

"That big supply of rubber is now tearly all on the way to the Goodyear actory in Akron. It constitutes the set of the London supply. On the inferior grades remaining prices have tince been rapidly advanced.

"We have since taken other steps to neure a continuous supply, all of the lighest grade rubber. In all the chief

Everybody Admires a Good-Looking Woman

Wherever you go you hear people comment upon this or that pretty woman and it is really her beautiful heir more than perfect features that gives the appearance of charm, youth and beauty.

Any woman can merit this praise, for and beauty.

Any woman can merit this praise, for beautiful hair is only a matter of care. Just as a plant needs attention and nourishment so must the hair have care and nutriment to make it grow long thick, soft, fluffy and lustrous. The scalp must be free from dandruff, and the hair roots properly nourished, as nature intended.

as nature intended.

Parislan Sage, which is delicately perfumed and easily applied, is just what is needed. It tones up and invigorates the roots of the hair and furnishes the necessary elements to make it grow long, soft, abundant and full of life.

One application of this scientific tonic removes every trace of dandruff and cleanses the hair of dust and excessive oil.

Why not start now to beautify the

It's Easy to Peel Off Your Tan or Freckles

This is what you should do to shed a spoiled complexion: Spread evenly over the face, covering every inch of skin, a thin layer of ordinary mercolized wax. Let this stay on over night: wash it off next morning. Repeat daily until your complexion is as clear, soft and beautiful as a young girl's. This result is inevitable, no matter how solled or discolored the complexion. The wax literally peels off the filmy surface skin, exposing the lovely young skin beneath. The process is entirely harmless, so little of the old skin coming off at a time. Mercolized wax is obtainable at any drug store; one ounce usually suffices. It's a veritable wonder-worker for rough, tanned, reddened, blotchy, pimpled or freekled skin. Pure powdered saxolite is excellent for a wrinkled skin. An ounce of it dissolved in a half pint witch hazel makes a refreshing wash-lotion. This renders the skin quite firm and smooth; indeed, the very first application erases the finer lines; the deeper ones soon follow.

POETRY

THE GERMLESS MAN.

Bill Tubbs came into this sad world way back in ancient days. Before the folks had started in the germ and microbe craze. He used to drink from old tin cupa apon the railroad train. And never had a thought of death or en the slightest pain. No ptomaine poisoning for him: he are just what he'd wish. And never stopped to sterilize a knife or cup or dish. He didn't seem to realize the chances that he took.

And what he didn't know of germs would fill a large-sized book.

Would fill a large-sized book.

He slept with windows closed at night whenever it was cold.

For of the perils of bad air he never had been told.

Whene er his jackknife made a slip and carved right through the fat.

He tied a rag around his thumb and let it go at that.

Snake bites would never worry him. He would chew up about A pound of plug and slap it on and draw the plaen out.

There were no disinfected towels or sanitary cash.

Or treatless on how to dodge the microbes in the hush.

Old Bill kept lingerin' along as happy
as a child.
He violated all the rules of health that were compiled.
The new ideas concernin' germs kept bobbin' up, but he Paid not the least attention far as any one could see. The up-to-date folks warned him that he must reform or die.

The microbes were just waiting for to send him up on high:

But he remained the same old reckless, germ-defying Bill,
And, strange to say, in spite of all, he's hangin' 'round here still!

THAT VACATION.

The folders that the mail has brought,
We've studied with a keen delight,
We've sat about the parior lamp
And taken long trips every night.
We've traveled o'er the summer sea
And on the road to anthracite.

We have lolled round in deep content
Upon Atlantic City's sand.
We've journeyed with the idle rich
To the resorts in Switzerland.
By gentle breezelets on the coast
Of Puget sound we have been fanned.

Imaginary trips are great.

For there is not a cent to pay:
And when it comes to traveling
That seems to be our only way.
When our vacation really comes
We'll just go fishing for a day
